

Women's Studies

July 3, 2013

Nehru Memorial Museum and Library

To Whom It May Concern:

Hafsa Kanjwal is currently a Ph.D. student in the joint graduate program with the University of Michigan Departments of Women's Studies and History in Ann Arbor, Michigan. Since entering the program she has remained in good standing.

Ms. Kanjwal is fully-funded with institutional support throughout her 5-year tenure as a graduate student. For the upcoming academic year 2013-14, the University of Michigan has awarded Ms. Kanjwal with a Rackham International Research Award, a Tuition Fellowship through the College of Literature, Science and the Arts, and international health insurance coverage for her research time spent outside of the United States—August 2013 to August 2014. The Department of Women's Studies respectfully requests your assistance in supporting Ms. Kanjwal with her archival research in India.

If you have questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me via telephone at +1 734 615-7619 or via email at aimgerm@umich.edu.

Sincerely,

Aimee A. Germain
Graduate Program Coordinator
Department of Women's Studies, University of Michigan